Description of Research

Provide a brief (not to exceed 10 pages, double-spaced, no smaller than 10 point type) overall abstract of your proposed research project, including the following information:

1. Research questions, hypotheses, design and methodology, including a description of the types of measures, and a timeline for execution.
2. Identify how the results of this research will be relevant to the issues facing contemporary families or enhance the field of couples or family therapy.
3. Project Budget Information. Clearly specify how you will use the funds received. What is your plan if the grant from the Foundation for the Contemporary Family does not cover the entire project? (Will you need to wait for other funding sources in order to proceed? Is it possible to do a scaled-down project?)
4. Staffing and Equipment Needs: Describe staffing and equipment required to implement research. What are the qualifications and experience of the principal investigator (include a current CV)? What are the requirements for any research assistants?

Completed forms should be sent to:
